

Kip Stringfellow

Member of the Board of Special Concepts

Kip Stringfellow believes in the power of entrepreneurship to solve global challenges. He was working as a Director of Business Development at Singularity University where he developed partnerships, created new programs, and coordinated SU's Global Impact Competitions. Prior to joining SU in 2009, he lived in China where he worked in marketing consulting and also started several businesses as an entrepreneur.

Kip is a graduate of the University of Michigan where his main focus was studying the process of globalization through economic, historical, political, and cultural contexts. He is very interested in global trends and understanding what factors are shaping the future. He is passionate about developing ideas, projects, and businesses that aim to create positive impact on an international level.

Currently, Mr. Stringfellow is acting as Member of the Advisory Board of Special Concepts, an aerospace company.
